The Cross Hatched area along the bottom is NOT part of the Finished Dome. It is only intended to keep the sections together during construction. It should be covered by the inner layer or removed before mounting the dome to the helmet.