

Now you're pretty much done! fit the cutting too you wish to use into your router, once attached to your jig.

From the underside, measure from the farthest point on your cutting tool, along the center line, to the halfway point of your circle (ie. need a 6" disc, measure 3" from the cutting blade and mark the position on the center line)

Circle Cutting Jig - Router