

Now you've got the final shape for your jig!

Placing your router on the larger end, mark out the screw holes that your face plate attaches with. (seen in pink)